

Nepal: Floods

Torrential monsoon rains started in Nepal on July 10, 2007, leading to landslides in the hilly region and subsequently to major floods and continued water logging in the Southern plains of Nepal. So far, 83 people have died and approximately 266.000 people in 32 districts are affected.

- Districts affected by landslide
- Districts affected by floods

The maps used do not imply the expression of any opinion on the part of the International Federation of the Red Cross and Red Crescent Societies or National Societies concerning the legal status of a territory or of its authorities.